TO ALL PROSPECTIVE MEMBERS OF CONGREGATION BETH SHALOM

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of Congregation Beth Shalom. I am here to answer any questions you might have in regards to the financial responsibilities of your membership.

Briefly, our annual dues fee schedule is based on a community membership commitment. By this we mean that a member's dues will be assessed based on their household income as determined by the adjusted taxable income shown on their income tax return. (See the enclosed fee schedule for the specific breakdown.) While we expect members to pay their community membership commitment, we don't turn anyone away due to financial hardship. If you feel that your current situation does not allow you to contribute at the recommended level, please contact me to make alternate arrangements.

If you will have children attending Religious school, a fee will be assessed for each student. The fee is based on the grade for which the student is enrolled.

Finally, as part of your membership, you will have access to a beautiful temple where you can go to worship and be a part of the Jewish community. However, with this comes an ongoing mortgage that must be satisfied. The building fund has been set up for this purpose. All new members are required to pay a building fund fee of $3,600.00. This fee can be spread over the first six years of your membership, with a minimum payment due of $600 per year.

Once again, thank you for your interest in Congregation Beth Shalom. Please feel free to contact me at cbstreasurer@napershalom.org should you have further questions.

Sincerely,

Mike Rabin
Treasurer
