AND WE REMEMBER ALL 6 MILLION WHO LOST THEIR LIVES IN THE SHOAH SANCTIFYING THE NAME OF THE HOLY. EACH OF THEM HAS A NAME. TO DO THE MITZVAH OF REMEMBERING www.eachofushasaname.org

Death is not the Enemy

I often feel that death is not the enemy of life, but its friend; for it is the knowledge that our years are limited which makes them so precious. It is the truth that time is but lent to us which makes us, at our best, look upon our years as a trust handed into our temporary keeping.

We are like children privileged to spend a day in a great park, a park filled with many gardens and playgrounds and azure-tinted lakes with white boats sailing upon the tranquil waves.

True, the day allotted to each of us is not the same in length, in light, in beauty. Some children of earth are privileged to spend a long and sunlit day in the garden of the earth. For others the day is shorter, cloudier, and dusk descends more quickly as in a winter’s tale.

But whether our life is a long summery day or a shorter wintry afternoon, we know that inevitably there are storms and squalls which overcast even the bluest heaven and there are sunlit rays which pierce the darkest autumn sky. The day that we are privileged to spend in the great park of life is not the same for all human beings; but there is enough beauty and joy and gaiety in the hours, if we will but treasure them.

Then for each of us the moment comes when the great nurse, death, takes us by the hand and quietly says, “It is time to go home. Night is coming. It is your bedtime, child of earth. Come; you are tired. Lie down at last in the quiet nursery of nature and sleep. Sleep well. The day is gone. Stars shine in the canopy of eternity.”

Joshua Loth Liebman z’l (1907-1948)
G-d, what is Man that You should know him, human beings, that You are mindful of them? Man is like a breath; the days of life are as a shadow that passes over.

There is a time for everything
There is a time for all things under the sun

A time to be born and a time to die
A time to laugh and a time to cry

A time to dance and a time to mourn
A time to seek and a time to lose

A time to forget and a time to remember

This day in sacred convocation we remember those who gave us life.
This day we remember those who enriched our life with love and with beauty, with kindness and compassion, with thoughtfulness and understanding.

This day we renew the bonds that bind us to those who have gone the way of all the earth.

As we reflect upon those whose memory moves us today, we seek consolation and the strength and insight born of faith.

Tender as a father with his children, G-d is merciful with those who bring prayer.

G-d knows how we are fashioned; G-d remembers that we are dust.

The days of Man are as grass; we flourish as flowers in the field.

The wind passes over it and it is gone, and no one can recognize where it grew.

But G-d’s compassion for all of us, G-d’s righteousness to children’s children remain, age after age, unchanging.

Three score and ten our years may number,
Four score years if granted the vigor.

Laden with trouble and travail, life quickly passes, it flies away.

Teach us to number our days, O G-d, that we may attain a heart of wisdom.

Grant us of Your love in the morning that we may joyously sing all our days.
Psalm 16:8

I keep G-d before me at all times; for surely G-d is at my right hand, I will not be moved.

When I stray from You, G-d, my life is as death,
But when I cleave to You, even in death I have life.

You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.

The earth inherits that which perishes.

But only the dust returns to dust,
The soul, which is G-d’s, is immortal.

As we live, we can cherish hopes, embrace values and perform deeds which death cannot destroy.

May we all be charitable in deed and in thought, in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace, so that we will be remembered as a blessing, as we remember those whose lives endure in our hearts as a blessing;

Our generations are bound to each other: children now remember their parents: parents now remember their children;

Love is strong as death: husbands and wives now remember their mates;

Memory holds on to life: we now remember our brothers and sisters, grandparents and other relatives, and friends.

Yizkor – In remembrance of our martyrs

יָזְקוֹרִי אֶלֶּהָא שְׁמַהַת כִּלּוּ אָחוֹתָנוּ בְּכֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל שֵׁמֶשׁ אַהֲרֵי נִפְשָׁם עַל קֹרְבֵי הָאֱלֹהִים. עַל קֹהֵם הָעָם עַל בָּאָוֶלֶת הָאָרֶץ. אַנָּא יִשֶּׁמֶת בְּכֵי נִפְשָׁם הַבָּנָっております. וּתְהִי מְנוּלְתָה נֶשְׁפָּתָהּ אדוּרֵוִיָּה בְּצַרוֹר חַיִיָּה. וּתְהִי מְנוּלְתָה כּוּרְדוֹ. שֶׁבֶט שְׁמַהַת אַהֲפֵיהֵי נֶפֶשׁ בֶּמֶשֶךְ נֶצֶּה. אַמּוּ:

May G-d remember the souls of our martyrs who gave their lives for the sanctification of G-d’s name, for the preservation of our people, and for the redemption of the Holy Land. May their heroism and sacrificial devotion be reflected in our thoughts and deeds. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life and their memories abide among us as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.
Eyl Maley Rachamim

G-d full of mercy who dwells on high, grant proper rest beneath the wings of Your Divine Presence, in the lofty heights of the holy and pure who shine as the brightness of the heavens, for the souls of our dear ones who have walked into their eternity.

Their resting place shall be in the Garden of Eden. May G-d care for them under the protection of G-d’s wings for all time, binding their souls in the bond of everlasting life.

G-d is their heritage, and they will rest in peace in G-d’s Presence.

Let us say: Amen.
At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
_we remember them_

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
_we remember them_

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
_we remember them_

At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer,
_we remember them_

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
_we remember them_

At the beginning of the year and at its end,
_we remember them_

As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us,
_as we remember them_

When we are weary and in need of strength,
_we remember them_

When we are lost and sick at heart,
_we remember them_

When we have joy we crave to share,
_we remember them_

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
_we remember them_

When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
_we remember them_

As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us,
_as we remember them._

Sylvan Kamens and Jack Riemer
Psalm 23

You are my shepherd, I am content

You lead me to rest in the sweet grasses

To lie down by the quiet waters

You lead me down the right path—the path that unwinds in the pattern of Your Name

Even if I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will not fear

For You are with me, comforting me with Your rod and Your staff, showing me each step

You prepare a table before me in the midst of my adversity

And moisten my head with oil. Surely my cup is overflowing

And goodness and kindness will follow me all the days of my life

And in the long days beyond, I will always live within Your house.

Eternal God, Who Remembers Our Deeds And Our Lives, We Turn To You For Solace And Hope When We Are Bowed In Grief.

As We Recall, With Affection, Those Who Have Been Taken From Our Midst, We Thank You For Our Years Of Love And Companionship With Them, And For The Memories And The Undying Inspiration Which They Have Left Behind.

We Will Always Remember

The past is full of wrongs
Some in our control,
and some beyond
We try to right these,
Yet the damage is done
We say “never again”

As if it is all we can do
But there is more
Some try to forget;
To ease the pain
But no matter what
We will always remember

Norman Yedwab (aka Roger): Devoted and generous father, loving husband
Judith Yedwab: Loving wife and mother
Pearl Miller: Fun loving aunt and sister
Joseph Yedwab: Long-missed brother

It was those family members who touched our lives and linger forever in our memories that make us richer in spirit. We think about them in the quieter moments and when retelling the stories of the past.

Their memories shall never fade and the love we have for them shall persist through the years.

Julia and Gregg wish you all a sweet and prosperous New Year.

“To Those I Love”

When I am gone, just release me, let me go - so I can move into my afterglow. You mustn't tie me down with your tears: let's be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love, you can only guess, how much you gave me in happiness, I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I traveled on alone. So grieve for me awhile, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted with trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart - And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

“Teach us to make every day count, that we may acquire a heart of wisdom”
- Psalms 90:12

Remembered by Judi and Bernie Newman
To open eyes when others close them
To hear when others do not wish to listen
To look when others turn away
To seek to understand when others give up
To rouse oneself when others accept
To continue the struggle when one is not the strongest
To cry out when others keep silent
To be a Jew

It is that, first of all, that
and further
To live when others are dead

And to remember when others have forgotten
(Emmanuel Eydoux, trans. Jonathan Magonet)
